

April 4, 1940.

Mr. John Borican,
272 Manhattan Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Borican:

We are writing to ask you to honor us with your presence at the Opening game of The Negro National League Baseball season on Sunday, May 5th, 1940 at Ruppert Stadium, Newark, N. J.

The Newark Eagles will be playing host to The New York Black Yankees.

We are extending this invitation to all of you young track Stars of whom we are so proud, for the very fine contribution they have made toward race progress, and in the field of sports. We will, of course, be happy to have you bring a guest.

We are sure all the fans will enjoy very much having you with them.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ